Doug Rothwell

President & CEO, Business Leaders for Michigan

Doug Rothwell is President & CEO of Business Leaders for Michigan, an organization with a mission to make Michigan a Top Ten state for economic growth and a board consisting of CEO's from the state's largest employers. He founded both Business Leaders for Michigan and the Michigan Economic Development Corporation which have become two of the most prominent organizations driving the state's economy.

Having served as a CEO or senior executive in the public, private and non-profit sectors, Doug successfully led both large and small organizations by focusing on outcomes, building the support of stakeholders, designing strong plans and paying attention to detail. He brings a creative, entrepreneurial mindset to a task and easily navigates the intersection of business, policy and community.

Respected by both political parties and small and large business leaders, Doug chaired Delaware Governor Mike Castle's and Michigan Governor Rick Snyder's Transition Teams and received the most prestigious honor awarded by the National Governors Association for his years of public service.

Doug graduated with a Masters of Public Administration degree from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill and a Bachelor of Arts degree from the University of Delaware and completed the John F. Kennedy School's Program for Senior Executives in State and Local Government at Harvard University.

His personal interests include design and architecture, history and North Carolina basketball.
